THURSDAY NOVEMBER 10.

STATE OF WISCONSIN. THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION. BY THE GOVERNOR.

Through the goodness of Almighty God health, peace, prosperity, and security to person and property have been accorded to the people of Wisconsin the past year, and our industries have received abundant rewards. Because of these benefits it is due that we reverently and with sincere hearts return thanks to Him for His blessing.

Now, therefore, in accordance with the proclamation of the President of the United States, I, Jeremiah M. Rusk, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby appoint as a day of public thanksgiving and praise, and I recommend that on that day the people of this State abstain from their usual vocations and return thanks for the innumerable blessings bestowed upon them by the Supreme Ruler, and that they remember by substantial benefactions and kindly deeds, the poor and afflicted among them.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1887,

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in Madison, this 27th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

J. M. RUSK.

By the Governor: EMMETT C. TRIMMER, Secretary of State.

CHEATING THE GALLOWS.

A special telegram from Chicago to the Gazette says that Louis Lingg, one of the condemned anarchists, killed himself in his cell this morning by means of a fuming cap charged with dynamite. It blew off a portion of his head, from the effects of which he died at 3 o'clock. This shows the desperate character of the man, and it sets at rest all doubt as to how the bombs found in his cell last Sunday got there. Lingg had evidently given up all hope of receiving a commutation of sentence, and therefore determined to take his own life with his favorite weapon, dynamite, than permit himself to be executed according to law. While people will be glad that Lingg is out of the way, there will be deep regret that he could not accompany his comrades to the gallows and meet the death justified by his crime.

At last accounts Governor Oglesby had not sent the decision in the case to Sheriff Matuson, but the impression prevails that he will save the necks of Fielden and Sobwab.

WEBSTER AND JENNY LIND.

Among the reminiscences of Jenny Lind, as the following, which is given by Peter Harvey in his fine sketches regarding Daniel Webster. It was during the session of Congress of 1850-51, when the famous singer gave a concert in Washington, and as a mark of her respect, and with a view to the celebration of the centenary of the birth of Mr. Webster, the members of the cabinet, Mr. Clay, and many other distinguished members of both houses of Congress. The concert was nearly over when Webster, Clay, Crittenden and others came. After the applause with which these gentlemen were received had subsided, and silence restored, the second part of the concert was opened by Jenny Lind with "Hail Columbia." This took place during the height of the debate and excitement on the slavery question, and the compromise resolutions of Mr. Clay, and this patriotic air was considered peculiarly appropriate for a concert where the head of the government and a large number of both branches of the legislative departments were present. At the close of the first verse Webster's patriotism boiled over; he could sit no longer, and raising like Olympian Jove, he added his deep, sonorous voice to the chorus, and it is presumed that never in the whole course of her career, did she ever hear or receive one-half of the applause as that with which her song and Webster's chorus were greeted. Mrs. Webster, who sat immediately behind him, kept tugging at his coat tail to make him sit down or stop singing, but it was no earthly use—and at the close of each verse Webster joined in, and it was hard to say whether Jenny Lind, Webster or the audience were the most delighted. At the close of the air, Mr. Webster rose with his hat in his hand, and made such a bow as Cleopatra would have deemed a fortune for her son, and which eclipsed D'Orsey's best. Jenny Lind, blushing at the distinguished honor, courtesied to the floor, the audience applauded to the very echo. Webster determined not to be outdone in politeness, bowed again. Miss Lind recourtesied, the audience re-applauded, and this was repeated nine times.

THE WOMAN SUFFRAGE QUESTION.

The Gazette has already published the opinion of prominent lawyers of this state in regard to the law enacted in 1855 giving women the right to vote on all school matters. Just what the law means is difficult to determine, but several lawyers have held that it gives women the right to vote on all questions touching school interests, and therefore women can rightly vote for nearly all city and county officers. A test case has come up before Judge Winslow. The Journal states the case as follows:

Arguments on a demurrer in the case of Rev. Olympia Brown Willis against A. L. Phillips, A. Baruch and James Palmer, inspectors of election in the second ward, for refusing to allow her to vote upon school matters, were concluded by I. C. Sloan, of Madison, at a late hour yesterday afternoon. Judge Winslow immediately rendered his decision. He said in substance that it was a case of very great importance and he would decide at once. The law was to say the least a most bung-ing one, but it developed upon him to put upon it such construction as in his judgment it should receive. He held that the law was constitutional inasmuch as the constitution of the state of Wisconsin is a limitation and not a grant of legislative power, and consequently that which is not expressly prohibited by the court is within the power of the legislature to enact. He also held that annual municipal elections in the city is an election which pertains to school matters and being such, it was the privilege of women to vote, not only for officers whose duties pertained to school matters but the whole municipal ticket. He said that if such were not the case the law would be holding inoperative in cities, which evidently was not for the court to speculate as to the effect of the consequences, or the extent to which this construction might lead. The demurrer interposed by the plaintiffs was overruled.

The intention of the law, was, of course, not to give women the right to vote for all municipal officers; but it is a bumbling law, and may be stretched to mean just what Judge Winslow declares it does. The case will go to the supreme court whether it should have gone some time ago.

ELECTION RETURNS.

Grant Defeated in New York by About 10,000 Votes.

FORAKER'S MAJORITY IN OHIO 25,000.

The Result in Iowa, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Massachusetts and Other States—A Synopsis in Chicago.

COOK'S VICTORY IN NEW YORK.

ASHLAND, N. Y., Nov. 10.—Approximately complete returns to the Argus from all the counties in the State, give Cook (Dem.) for Governor, 10,000 plurality over Grant (Rep.), a net Democratic loss of 408 compared with 1885's plurality in 1885.

New York, Nov. 10.—The returns from Tuesday's election in New York, so far as received, show that the Democrats have carried the State by 20,000 majority. The Republicans will probably retain control of the Legislature, but further returns may show their majority in that body. In New York City Colonel Folger defeated Delancey Nichol for State attorney by 25,000.

The Tribune says: "The third party—Prohibitionists—would seem to have made decided gains. Last year they gave their nominees for the Appellate bench 36,414 votes. This year their vote may reach 43,000. The labor vote for the entire State is estimated at 70,000, of which 20,000 was polled outside of New York and Kings counties.

The returns from the State are not yet complete, but enough have been received to indicate that the Senate and Assembly remain Republican. The present Senate stands as follows: Republicans, 20; Democrats, 12. The next Senate, according to present figures, which are not complete, will stand as follows: Republicans, 19; Democrats, 13. The present Assembly stands as follows: Republicans, 74; Democrats, 54. The indications are that this majority of 20 will be somewhat reduced.

New York, Nov. 10.—Henry George says the United Labor party has met its full end, and that he will carry this State.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The general opinion is that the success of the Democrats in New York means re-nomination for Cleveland, and that he will carry this State.

FORAKER'S PLURALITY 30,000.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 10.—The latest returns from the city and county precincts show Foraker's election by over 4,000. He ran almost even with his closest rival, Rev. (Dem.) Van Alstyne, who showed the effects of the arrangement by which Seitz was slaughtered by his Union Labor friends. The balance of the Union Labor ticket was a heavy vote—equal to the Democrats. The Prohibitionist vote was very light. The latest returns received indicate a plurality of 20,000 for Foraker. The Legislature probably will be 24 Republican; House, 67 Republican.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 10.—One of the questions voted upon Tuesday was the proposed annexation to the city of about two-thirds of Hyde Park, the south half of Lake View, all of Brighton, a strip from the eastern part of Chicago and Section 23 of Jefferson. Chicago practically had her own way, as she generally does, and her population has been increased in a single day something like 65,000. Hyde Park, Brighton, Cicero and Jefferson voted to come in, and Lake View and Lake decided to stay out.

As regards the propositions, aside from candidates for office, that were voted on by the people of Chicago, it is certain that the city-hood question has carried. The fate of the Jury Commission law is as yet undecided, the vote upon the question of its adoption or rejection being very close.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 10.—Returns from 750 of the 1,000 precincts of the State, show a net Democratic gain of 750. The same vote maintained in the rest of the State will give Larrabee (Rep.) for Governor 12,000 plurality over Anderson (Dem.), and a majority of 3,000 over all the vote of Ohio (U. L.) for Governor. Larrabee will give Larrabee (Rep.) 200 in the State. The Legislature will be Republican by about 45 on joint ballot.

Complete returns from fifty-three of the ninety-nine counties in the State give Larrabee (Rep.) 87,609; Anderson (Dem.) 87,424; Cain (Labor), 6,124; Farnham (Rep.), 21; Larrabee's plurality over Anderson, 10,185; and his majority over all, 3,982. These are the only returns yet received. (Rep.) 52,007; Seitz (Dem.), 72,036.

A SWEETENED REPUBLICAN VICTORY.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 10.—Estimates from all counties in Pennsylvania show a plurality of between 35,000 and 40,000 for Hart (Rep.), for State Treasurer, a Democratic gain of about 10,000 as compared with the vote for State Treasurer in 1885 and that for Governor last year.

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—Returns from all towns and cities in the State give for Governor Ames (Rep.), 135,912; Lovering (Dem.), 118,811; Eaton (Rep.), 10,997; Martin (Labor), 511.

This makes Ames' plurality 17,101, against 9,478 last year. This is a clear majority of 6,550, against 923 in 1886. Brackett (Rep.), for Lieutenant-Governor, has a plurality of 22,144 over Cutting (Dem.).

A VOTE FOR "DIVISION."

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 10.—The Dakota election returns indicate that the next Legislature will stand: Senate—Republicans, 12; Democrats, 9. House—Republicans, 47; Democrats, 23.

NEW JERSEY.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 10.—Corrected returns yesterday indicate that the next Legislature will stand: Senate—Republicans, 12; Democrats, 9. House—Republicans, 47; Democrats, 23.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 10.—As was anticipated, the Democrats carried nearly every thing in the State, though complete figures can not yet be given. Reliable estimates from throughout the State show that Jackson's majority for Governor will be about 9,000, the smallest received by any Governor in twenty years.

CLAIMING VALUABLE LANDS.

HOOVER, Mich., Nov. 10.—Joseph H. Chandler, of Chicago, has secured a Michigan State deed to forty acres of swamp land, which embraces the grounds of the Calumet & Hecla Mining Company. The filing of the document created a great sensation here. Lawyers do not think he has a chance of getting the property.

KILLED BY AN OFFICER.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 10.—George Grant, a colored cook and desperado, was shot by an officer Tuesday night, falling dead near the spot where, five years ago, he killed Policeman Jones. For the latter crime an innocent negro was lynched by a mob.

It will be a good while before Mr. Cleveland can work off the mud he has daubed over himself by dabbling in New York city politics.

There will be no reform in Baltimore and New York if Cleveland's money and influence can help it.

LINGG SUICIDES.

He Blows One Side of His Head Off With a Cap Charged With Dynamite.

The Deed Done a Few Moments Before Nine O'clock This Morning.

Death Follows Within Six Hours—Great Excitement Throughout the City.

CREATED THE GALLOWS.

(Special to the Gazette.)

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—The threats recently uttered by Lingg, has finally been carried into effect. A most desperate attempt at suicide was made by the bomb-maker this morning.

A few moments before nine o'clock the jail officials were summoned to the anarchists' cell by the sound of a muffled explosion. They were met with the sight of Louis Lingg outstretched in a pool of blood, with one side of his head completely blown off. It was realized at once that the suicide's long threatened had been attempted. Lingg had concealed about his person in some way a fuming cap charged with dynamite and with this the deed had been done. The injuries inflicted are pronounced as fatal. Death is only the matter of a few hours.

THE BOMB-MAKER DEAD.

(Special to the Gazette.)

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Louis Lingg, who shot himself with a dynamite cap this morning, died a few moments after three o'clock.

VAST FORESTS IN FLAMES.

Much Damage and Suffering in Indiana and Illinois.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 10.—The drought and the forest fires together in this country are distressing. All Southern Indiana and Illinois are suffering, as well as Northern and Western Kentucky. In some parts of this region a copious rain has not fallen for more than five months. The result has been that streams have dried up, and water has become so scarce that the condition is alarming for both man and beast. In the extreme western counties of Kentucky a most deplorable condition of affairs is reported. The wells have given out, springs disappeared, and streams completely dried up for the first time in the history. Many of the people are compelled to go several miles for drinking water. Stock suffers greatly, and much property is reported from cattle disease, superinduced by the dry weather.

Reports throughout Southern Indiana, in Spencer, Warrick, Pike, Gibson and Vanderburgh counties, are equally discouraging. Vegetation everywhere is parched and dry, water elements are empty, saw-mills have stopped on account of the difficulty of getting logs, and railway traffic is hindered by lack of water. Live stock everywhere is distressed. In one part of Gibson and Pike counties the impounded milk sickness, which is killing the cattle in the White river bottoms to an alarming extent. The White river is a creek, and has reached a lower stage than ever before.

Advices from Warrick County state that three-fourths of the population of Boonville are compelled to buy water for all purposes, the supply being hauled from Pigeon creek, seven miles, and is bringing fifty cents a barrel. Near that city, at Sikkora Mills, an immense pond had been stocked by the fish commissioners with German carp. The fish became so low that all of the larger fish were taken out and carried to distant waters.

YANKEETOWN, Ill., Nov. 10.—Forest and prairie fires are raging in this region. The Kaw river bottom east of here is on fire, and a vast territory has already been burned over, destroying farming, timber, etc. Hundreds of acres of pastures have been destroyed of every species of grass. Little or nothing can be done to stay the progress of the flames owing to the scarcity of water.

VENETA, Ill., Nov. 10.—Considerable anxiety is felt here over reports of fires raging in the timber and bottoms in portions of this county. A dense cloud of smoke, obscuring the sun's rays, has hovered over this town all day, and many people awake this morning almost suffocated and their houses filled with smoke. Reports from the Cache bottoms, in the southern part of the county, say there has been great destruction of property. One man had 100 acres of corn and all of his fences burned. Great droves of cattle are fleeing to the hills for safety.

WYATT, Pa., Nov. 10.—A very destructive prairie fire broke out a mile south of town Monday night. Every thing combustible burned in an area eight miles square. Thousands of acres of pastures and many tons of hay were burned. Farms, cow sheds, barns and machinery. The loss can not fall short of $50,000. Many cattle were also burned.
